CALL FOR FACULTY

high school and college Latin students:

*spread your enthusiasm
for the ancient world
to a new generation!*

Ascanius: The Youth Classics Institute, a nonprofit organization dedicated to promoting the Classical world in the elementary and middle school, is accepting applications for faculty positions at LatinSummer 2012 now through February 15, 2012.

Any high school Latin student currently enrolled in grades 10, 11, or 12, and any freshman or sophomore college Latin student is welcome to apply. (College Latin students from any level may apply for the Birmingham program.) LatinSummer is a two-week long program for students on the elementary & middle school levels.

LatinSummer 2012 will run in Richmond, Virginia from June 29 – July 13, 2012; in Fairfax County, Virginia from July 6 – 20, 2012; in Birmingham, Alabama from July 13 – 27, 2012; and in Boston, Massachusetts, from July 20 – August 3, 2012.

Positions are volunteer, similar to unpaid internships. All faculty members will receive training both via distance learning (in the months leading up to the program) and on-site (in the days before the program begins). All faculty members will receive partial reimbursement for board. All faculty members must be able to commute daily to the program location.
