

Directions: Player 1 rolls the die, lands on a space, and guesses whether the statement is true or false. Player 2 checks the answer sheet. Then it is Player 2's turn. The game continues until one player reaches the finish space.

4. Our custom of holiday gift-giving may come from Saturnalia.

13. Gambling was forbidden during Saturnalia.

1. The Romans spent only a few hours in a single day celebrating Saturnalia.

8. Businesses were closed during Saturnalia.

14. The Saturnalia celebration included tying ropes around Saturn's statue at his temple.

12. The Romans wore only white clothing during Saturnalia.

15. During Saturnalia, it was customary to eat human-shaped cookies.

7. A "cap of freedom," called the "pileus," was worn by slaves during Saturnalia.

5. Schools remained open during Saturnalia.

11. No declaration of war could be made during Saturnalia.

6. Slaves attended a banquet during Saturnalia, where their masters would serve them.

3. The Romans did not decorate their houses at all during Saturnalia.

9. The atmosphere during Saturnalia was solemn and serious.

2. Saturnalia honored the god, Saturn, who had ruled during the Golden Age.

10. People often greeted one another by exclaiming, "Io Saturnalia!"

